

LogSoft ERP

LogSoft ERP, a comprehensive business software will enhance your company's efficiencies. It will simplify the Logistics and Operations processes your business requires. The Solution will be customized to your business specific processes. This will empower you to adapt faster and cost-effectively to your customer's and market requirements. With the Software on the Cloud you can access it via the Internet from anywhere. Our packages include Maintenance, Updates and Upgrades. This saves you investments and overhead costs in IT Hardware and Human Resources

Transport Management System

LogSoft Transport Management System (TMS) is an Application to support Transport companies in their Execution, Planning and optimization of their Fleet. It is a comprehensive tool for any Haulage or Courier organization. LogSoft TMS will help you build in Vehicle Tracking Systems (VTS) in your assets (trucks) to enhance the asset utilization ratio, plan better and track them on the roads

Customized Software Development

Our proven expertise is seen in developing Software applications for our clients in industry verticals such as Logistics, Packaging and Retail. We have a highly skilled software developer team specializing in Microsoft .Net technology to develop web-based application which can be hosted on the Cloud. We apply .Net, C#, WPF and Visual Basic. Our professionals will work with you to design a high quality IT Solution tailor-made or customized to your business requirements and objectives.

We will provide you with Project Management resources and a clear road map will be defined for migration from your present to future platform. Our excellent backup support in addition to our ongoing communication with our clients will help them to have a software which is always up to date in technology with the times

LogSoft ERP affordable expertise in Business Software We deliver easy to understand solutions

LogSoft offers high quality, simple and easy to understand Business Software.

Our ERP (Enterprise Resource Planning) is comprehensive for small and midsize companies is delivered on the cloud. It can be customized to your requirements irrespective of your industry vertical. Our expertise lies in Business Software (ERP), Logistics & Transport Management and Software Product Development.

LogSoft delivers you one solution throughout your business. This On-Demand Solution is available on SaaS (Software as a Service) is affordable, low-priced as a monthly subscription. This model includes maintenance and upgrades thereby saving you IT costs on buying in new technologies as they upgrade.

A business software which will streamline your administration and operations. The technology is underpinned with highly experienced international consultants in ERP, Logistics & Transportation and Software Development.

Some questions you may want to ask .....

Does your Purchase, Logistics and Production know as soon as a sale is made. So they can plan better...

The order process can go through a proper Credit Control process...

Important functions in the organizations are done using different software (island solutions) resulting in duplication, loss of data, time and money

Do I have all the processes in place in one Business Software Tool to have a comprehensive overview, reduce my inventories and lower my investment costs

LogSoft ERP can provide you the solutions

Your benefits of Cloud Computing

- Online all time and anytime
- Free up your IT staff to do more important work
- Lower your IT costs
- No separate hardware requirements e.g. servers
- Excellent online support
- Manage your business from the cloud at 30000 ft.